VOSS FIRM TO DO SPRAYING IN LIBERIA

Gettysburg's Ag-Rotors, Inc., will spend the winter in Africa battling the Helminthosporium Birdseye Leafspot fungus for the Firestone Rubber Company.

The local helicopter service, which has handled spraying and other chores throughout much of the eastern seaboard, plus operating a battlefield air tour service here during the summer weekends, will during February and March spray several hundred thousand acres of rubber trees in the Firestone plantations in the Monrovia, Liberia, area.

Dr. Carroll Voss, Gettysburg R. 1, president of the concern, said today he is particularly proud of the contract with Firestone because it came to the Gettysburg concern almost without their knowing it was available. A number of English concerns with helicopters in Africa had been bidding for the job. Ag-Rotors' reputation became known to Firestone officials however for they called Voss and asked him if he wished to bid on the job.

DID ECUADOR JOB

The local entomologist and helicopter expert has gained a wide reputation for his work in using helicopters in experimental tree spraying. He and his chief pilot, Charles Mark, a few years ago carried out the first experimental work on spraying banana trees in Ecuador. Voss has also done experimental spraying for railroads and about two years ago carried out the first fertilization of pasture by helicopter.

Issues Rule To Stop Ousting Of Sharecroppers

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The U.S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals today granted a temporary injunction to prevent landowners in Haywood County, Tennessee, from evicting approximately 300 Negro sharecroppers because they had registered to vote.

The three-judge court declared, however, the order was not to be construed as preventing "legitimate action" by landowners where their intentions were not intended to deprive Negroes of their voting rights.

In a separate decision, the court dismissed a mandamus action which would have required U.S. Dist. Judge Marion S. Boyd of Memphis, Tenn., to take a similar action involving 400 sharecroppers in Fayette County, Tenn.

It was understood, however, that government attorneys would use the Haywood County decision as a precedent for asking Judge Boyd to issue a temporary injunction for Fayette County.

Judge Boyd had denied the petition for the temporary injunction in Haywood County and had declined to hear the Fayette County case.

HEARING IN FEBRUARY

On the basis of today's decision, the appeals court now will conduct a hearing, probably in February, on an appeal from Judge Boyd's decision.

The granting of the injunction preserves the "status quo" of sharecroppers whose contracts for farming of land expire automatically after Saturday.

It means, attorney said that the contracts between the sharecroppers and the landowners may not be terminated as of Saturday on the basis of any civil rights law violation.

ASK FARMERS FOR REPLY ON WHEAT PLANS

The Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today reported response from 1,711 county farmers to a return-card program seeking information on the farmer's plans for wheat production.

At the same time, the ASC said, it is sending additional cards to 250 farmers who have not replied to the first question in the hope of saving the cost of sending someone to ask the farmers personally what they plan to do.

J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the local ASC, said the law governing the operations of the office requires that it have an answer to wheat plans even though the farmer does not plan to grow any wheat next year.

As a result, the office is hoping for more returns on its request while noting that the efforts of 1,711 farmers in returning the questionnaire cards has "saved the county a lot of money." Of the 1,711 cards returned it was found that 1,479 farms will not need visiting, while fieldmen will have to visit 232 because of the number of acres involved.

The ASC office also announced signing an agreement to pay $5,059 to the Adams County Soil Conservation Service for technical services given farmers in connecting with the coming year's agricultural conservation program practices. The amount, highest the ASC can pay to the conservation service, will cover about 68 per cent of the cost of the services that will be provided the farmers, Miller said.

Sabers Swing, Rocks Fly As Troopers And Strikers Clash In Brussels Today

By EDDY GILMORE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — State troopers and strikers clashed in downtown Brussels today in a melee of swinging sabers and flying rocks. One demonstrator was killed, the fifth fatality in the 11-day nationwide strike.

The striker was killed by a saber blow, Socialist leaders of the strike said. But a Ministry of Interior spokesman said a civilian fired on the demonstrators and "a man was killed." Police said at least 12 persons from both sides were injured.

The death on this most violent day of the walkout came in fighting that broke out when strikers stoned the Brussels headquarters of Belgium's Sabena Airlines.

Violence erupted at the big northern port of Antwerp and at several cities in the industrial south, where the strike against Premier Gustav Eyskens' economic program has been most effective.

In Antwerp, strikers wrecked a post office truck and beat up two postal workers who refused to join the strike.

About 4,000 strikers clashed with police in the southwest industrial city of Mons and there were other outbreaks of violence in and around Charleroi.

King Baudouin, who cut short his honeymoon to deal with the crisis, met with the presidents of the Senate and House of Representatives. He had conferred with Eyskens Thursday night.

KING CALLS LEADERS

The king also asked the leaders of Belgium's three largest political parties to come to see him. Eyskens held his regular Cabinet meeting while the disorders were taking place.

A communiqué said the Cabinet had examined the situation throughout the nation and approved measures so far taken. The Cabinet reaffirmed the government's position—that the House

SLEET BRINGS COATING OF ICE

A mixture of freezing rain and sleet that started falling here about 1:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon coated the outdoors with a layer of ice that did not disappear until late this morning when temperatures climbed above the freezing point.

State Highway Department crews worked throughout the night, spreading salt and calcium on highways to remove the covering of ice but sidewalks remained hazardous through the night.

Motorists had trouble with ice that covered their cars and cut down visibility. Warnings were issued by police and highway authorities to avoid travel unless it was necessary.

The temperature here during most of the night was in the middle and upper 20's.

Partially cloudy weather and higher temperatures are forecast for Saturday.

DAR BOARD TO MEET

The Daughters of the American Revolution will hold an executive board meeting at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Hotel Gettysburg.

The oceans are more than a thousand miles from their state, but Minnesotans nonchalantly say, "Who cares? Who needs 'em?" It is easy to understand why, for the "Land of 10,000 Lakes" actually has hundreds and hundreds more than the number of lakes claimed in that slogan.

Because Minnesota is so richly endowed with beautiful lakes teeming with game fish, with vast forests and other scenic wonders to match, it has been an all-powerful magnet drawing tourists and vacation lovers for a 100 years. Travelers spend upwards of $100,000,000 annually in the state's resort areas making the tourist business a high income-producing factor in the state's economy.

Geographically, Minnesota really is "in the center of things," being virtually in the middle of the North American continent. Minneapolis, its largest city, is situated on the 45th parallel halfway between the Equator and the North Pole and also is approximately equidistant between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

The Red River of the North, forming about a half of Minnesota's western boundary, is the only important river flowing northward out of the United States into Canada. Its fertile valley is famous for premium quality wheat and sugar beets. The Mississippi River, "Father of Waters," which drains more than half of the state, has its source in Itasca State Park. Many a tourist, upon returning home, boasts of the fact that he "jumped across the Mississippi" during his vacation in Minnesota!

Minnesota's economy, as with other midwest states, is well diversified. Farming, mining and manufacturing, plus the previously mentioned tourist business, largely account for the relatively high living standards of its people. From the farms which cover more than half of the state's area comes a wide variety of food and fiber. Minnesota ranks first in oats and butter; second in eggs, flax and honey; third in corn and barley. Soybeans, rye, sugar beets, hay, wheat, milk, livestock, poultry and apples also contribute heavily to the Gopher state's farm income, one of the highest in the nation.

The fabulous Mesabi, Cuyuna and Vermilion Ranges in northeastern Minnesota produce almost three quarters of the nation's iron ore and now mammoth taconite operations on the north shore of Lake Superior are processing vast additional supplies of raw material for the country's hungry steel mills.

Manufacturing, too, is a vital segment of the state's economic picture. Agricultural and forest products constitute the basis of many industries here. The processing of meat, butter, cheese, wood products, flour, cereals, linseed, soybeans and numerous other items is dependent on farm and forest for raw materials.

Christmas Rush At Post Office Sets New Record

The Christmas rush at the Gettysburg post office set a new all-time record, Postmaster Jacob G. Appler reported today.

The count of the flow of mail through the office from December 15 through December 23 showed a total of 351,360. That figure is exclusive of packages and metered mail, which in most cases comes from business places.

The comparable figure for the same period in 1959 showed a total of 323,780. The increase of 27,580 pieces of mail represents a jump of 8.51 per cent for this year, the postmaster noted.

ASK CHURCHES TO RING BELLS

The bells of dozens of churches throughout Adams County will ring New Year's Eve at 7:15 o'clock in cooperation with a "Bells for Brotherhood" project being sponsored here by the Adams County Council of Churches.

Sponsored through the nation by the American Bell Association, the pealing of the bells is designed to carry the message: "Worship regularly in the house of God of your choosing and work week after week for true brotherhood."

In a message to churchmen throughout the county, urging participation in the bell-ringing project on New Year's Eve, the Rev. Lester J. Karschner, Abbottstown, president of the county Council of Churches, said: "Before the hilarity and abandon of New Year's Eve gaiety sets in, ring out the message of the bells, signaling a brief interval for reflection upon the blessings of the old year and the responsibilities of the new."

The Bell Association is promoting the ringing of church bells each Saturday evening across the nation in the "Bells for Brotherhood" program. The county churches are being asked to cooperate on New Year's Eve.

Kennedy Calls Conference January 5 On Farm Crisis

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today called a Jan. 5 conference in New York to deal with what he called the farm crisis.

He did so after saying he is seriously considering appointment of a world-roving ambassador to represent him in talks with high foreign officials, including government chiefs. Reports are Kennedy's choice for this assignment is W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to the Soviet Union and former governor of New York.

Kennedy headquarters said that nine farm leaders will meet with him at the Carlyle Hotel in New York a week from today. Minnesota Gov. Orville L. Freeman, secretary of agriculture-designate, also will sit in at the conference.

BUSY WEEKEND AHEAD

In telegrams inviting the leaders to confer, the president-elect said he hopes the session will lead to further meetings "by persons designated by the conference to recommend action to relieve the farm crisis."

Meanwhile, Kennedy lined up a program of work for the New Year's holiday weekend.

He scheduled a news conference here Saturday morning to announce his selection for another federal job. The conference was arranged amid speculation that Kennedy has decided to name McGeorge Bundy, Harvard dean of the faculty of arts and sciences, as his special assistant on national security matters.

MORE NEWS SUNDAY

Kennedy will hold another news conference Sunday, New Year's day, at his ocean-front home, on hand with him for that one will be Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., chairman of a Kennedy-appointed committee on federal aid for areas of chronic unemployment.

The committee's report and recommendations will be made public Sunday. Invited to the farm conference in New York were: Herschel D. Newsom, who is master of the National Grange; James Patton, head of the National Farmers

COUNTY FIRM DEFENDANT IN COURT ACTION

Thirteen Adams County fruit-growers and the Great Lakes Cherry Producers Marketing Cooperative, Inc., Grand Rapids, Mich., Thursday afternoon filed an action in assumpsit in the prothonotary's office against the C. H. Musselman Co.

The growers claim the Biglerville corporation owes them a total of $1,574.55 on approximately 351 tons of cherries they provided the processing plant during August 1959. The cooperative claims it represented the growers and should receive from the Musselman Co. $263.37 representing a 75 cents per ton service charge on net graded fruit purchased from members of the cooperative locally.

INCLUDES MANY PAGES

The complaint in a number of pages in the assumpsit action is one of the largest filed in recent years in the prothonotary's office. It contained a 39-page statement of the 14 counts, 13 alternate counts, 14 pages of affidavits and 14 pages of exhibits.

As filed for the group by Atty. Donald M. Swope, the complaint lists as count one the contention of the Great Lakes Cherry Producers Marketing Cooperative, Inc., that it represented the growers and should receive the 75 cents per ton on the cherries sold by its members to the processor.

Berkley I. Freeman, secretary-manager of the cooperative, claims in the count referring to its organization that an oral agreement was reached by telephone with John A. Hauser, president of C. H. Musselman Co., on July 5, 1959, to "go along with the association."

GROWERS LIST CLAIMS

Freeman claims that on July 10, 1959, "the price of red tart cherries under the proposed processors agreement was established by the requisite number of processors at 64 cents per pound for cherries grading 95 per cent USDA No. 1."

Each of the growers in his own count of the agreement with Marketing Co-operative states he is a member, and then lists the amount of cherries he sold, their grades, etc., how much he was paid, how much he believes he should have received under the agreement and the amount he believes is still owing him.

Each of the growers lists an alternate count, citing a price scheduled from the Musselman Company as the basis for their action.

Adding the amounts listed shows the company paid $33,871.88 to the growers. They claim they should have been paid $35,446.41.

The growers contend they delivered 702,310 pounds of cherries between July 7 and July 24, 1959.

A. C. KEEFER IS HURT IN CRASH

A. C. Keefer, 84, McKnightstown, suffered a nose injury in an auto accident a mile west of here on the Lincoln Highway Thursday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock.

The accident was the only one reported by state police this morning despite very slippery conditions of the highways from ice which spread over the roads as freezing rain fell through the afternoon.

Police said Keefer's injury was minor and he did not seek immediate medical attention.

According to the officers, Keefer was driving west when his car struck the rear of a sedan owned by Buchart Associates of York and operated by William H. Murphy, 39, Hanover. Police said Murphy had halted the car with most of the vehicle on the north berm of the highway but with the left rear of the auto partially extending into the westbound lane of the highway.

Damage was estimated as totaling $400.

PLAN MANNED ROCKET RIDE NEXT SPRING

By C. YATES MCDANIEL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first American manned rocket ride is set for early spring if a large ape survives the jolt of a blast-off from Cape Canaveral early in 1961.

The House Committee on Science and Astronautics made this prediction in a man-in-space report today.

Despite setbacks in recent tests, Chairman Overton Brooks, D-La., pictured the United States standing "on the threshold of a major flight test program of short and long range ballistic flights, leading first to unmanned, and later on to manned orbital flight late in 1961, if all goes well."

MARCH OR APRIL

The report, based on information supplied by the Defense Department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, (NASA) set next March or April as the date for the first manned rocket ride. One of the Mercury astronauts will be strapped in a capsule and shot well over 100 miles up by an Army Redstone missile.

This first space ride will last a matter of minutes. Ships will be ready to fish the capsule from the Atlantic Ocean.

An earlier trial, using the same kind of rocket and capsule, will have a chimpanzee as passenger.

If all goes well with the first manned space probes, the payoff will come next fall, when the first attempt will be made to put a man into a satellite in space, and keep him there long enough to complete several orbits of the earth.

COULDN'T RENT HOME; 15 KIDS

NOYAN, Que. (AP)—This tiny Quebec village was both sad and angry today about the fire that killed Mrs. Abel Vosburgh and 11 of her 15 children.

A brother of the dead woman said the family lived in the wood shack built by the father "because no one would rent him a house with all those children."

"Everyone has lost someone," said the Rev. William Sellwood as he went around this village of 500 near the Vermont border spreading the news of Thursday's early morning tragedy.

"In a closely knit community like this, there are very few folk who are not related," he explained.

Pushing out of the ashes of the one-story shack were the frames of the four beds in which the victims were trapped. Six bodies were found in one bed.

Vosburgh was the only survivor of the fire that killed his 43-year-old wife and 11 children 6 months to 19 years old. Two of their children are married and the other two were away.

STEAL SECRET PAPERS FROM DEFENSE DEPT.

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—A former Defense Department employee has been charged with stealing secret documents.

Arthur Rogers Roddey, 38, of Falls Church, Va., told newsmen he took the papers "to take them to the National Security Council." He said after his arrest Thursday, "I felt I was right and I still feel that way."

The council is the top echelon of the Department of Defense. Roddey was senior operations research adviser for the weapons system evaluation group of the Institute of Defense Analysis.

A newsmen asked Roddey at his arraignment if he felt the documents contained information he thought the council should have but that it had not been given.

"I don't know what they knew, but I knew what I knew and wanted them to know it," he replied. He conceded he did not take the documents to the council.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said the case does not involve espionage.

SEEK GRAND JURY

In Richmond, Va., however, U. S. Dist. Atty. Joseph S. Bamabus, who authorized filing of the charges, commented, "I plan to reconvene the federal grand jury in Alexandria (Va.) within the next 10 days and I will ask the grand jury to indict Roddey on espionage charges."

He said some of the documents are "so highly classified that their mere existence, let alone their contents, are top secret."

The FBI announcement of Roddey's arrest said he made false statements about possession of documents when he left the job in August.

OVER 200 DOCUMENTS

The FBI charged that Roddey took a top secret tape recorder and approximately 200 documents. Roddey said he had known since September that he was under investigation. He expressed relief that the charges were no more severe and "actually are as indicated to me previously."

He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Henry W. Kirkland. There were two counts of theft of government property and three counts of fraud.

Roddey worked in the Pentagon from 1958 until the staff was cut last August. He came here a week ago to spend Christmas at the home of his mother-in-law.

POLES TO READ ABOUT G-BURG IN MAGAZINE

Gettysburg receives mention in the Polish language edition of "America Illustrated" which goes on sale throughout Poland this week.

In a series of articles being carried by the magazine on each of the 50 states of the U.S.A., Pennsylvania appears in this edition. The article lists Gettysburg as one of the state's outstanding historic shrines "where one of the most decisive battles of the Civil War was fought in 1863."

The governments of the United States and Poland agreed, in an exchange of notes May 30, 1958, on a magazine exchange program. Under the agreement, on a monthly basis, the U. S. Information Agency was authorized to distribute a Polish-language magazine about America, "America Illustrated," in Poland and the Polish government was authorized to distribute an English language magazine about Poland, titled "Poland," in the United States.

The first issue of the Polish edition of "America Illustrated" went on sale on newsstands in Warsaw and in 35 other cities or provinces on February 2, 1959. It is distributed by the official Polish news distribution agency, RUCH.

Thirty thousand copies of each issue are available every month to Polish readers at five zlotys a copy (about 20 cents at the tourist rate). The net sales proceeds go to the U. S. Treasury. In addition to the newsstand circulation, the U. S. Embassy in Warsaw distributes 2,000 complimentary copies every month.

PUBLISHING AND PRINTING

The magazine is published by USIA'S Press and Publications Service in Washington, D. C., and printed in Rockville, Md.

The magazine is distributed in Poland to promote a better understanding of the United States and life in America.

In content, it is nonpolitical and is not subject to censorship. Although it is generally similar to the Russian-language magazine of the same name produced by USIA since October, 1956, for readers in the Soviet Union, special articles are developed of particular interest to the Polish people.

A limited number of copies of the Polish-language "America Illustrated" are available to American readers through the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., at 50 cents a copy or $5 a year.

of Representatives would be allowed to debate the controversial austerity legislation to raise taxes and cut welfare spending to offset losses of Congo revenue.

GIVE LAWS NEEDED

After the meeting the premier told reporters: "The most important thing is to pass the legislation and give the country the new laws it needs."

The demonstrators in Brussels stalked the streets shouting "We'll march on Parliament Tuesday" and "To the gallows with Eyskens." Parliament reconvenes Tuesday to consider the austerity program.

The Socialists contend that the burden of the new austerity program will fall heaviest on the workers.

The economic battle spawned a new outbreak of the conflicts between the Catholics and Socialists, and between the French-speaking Walloon south and Flemish north, that often have divided Belgium.

The day's first violence came in the Charleroi region, a Socialist stronghold in the south. Cobblestones were torn from the streets and thrown in Couillet, Marcinelle, Gilly, Marchienne-au-Pont and Jumet.

copter for Du Pont and the King Brothers at their Pennsylvania ranch.

With a leafspot this year for the first time making inroads into the millions of rubber trees at the Liberian plantations of Firestone, the rubber company asked Voss to carry out an experimental program in an effort to determine methods of controlling it. Plans call for use of Dithane and Fomate on a large portion of the thousands of acres of trees, use of other materials on other portions. Some blocks of trees will be left free of any material as a check to see which of the chemicals works best.

ONLY FOR COPTERS

Dr. Voss said Firestone officials told him neither ground nor airplane spraying was practical because of the "lay of the land" and only helicopters will be able to do the job.

This afternoon one of the four helicopters owned by Ag-Rotors leaves its staging area at the Battlefield Earthmovers shop along the Chambersburg pike. It will travel on a Maitland "low-boy" trailer to Baltimore enclosed in a special travelling box built by Battlefield Earthmovers. The "box," containing the helicopter and enough spare parts to rebuild it completely plus tools, is labelled "Ag-Rotors, Inc., care of Firestone, Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa," on one side and "Ag-Rotors Helicopters, Gettysburg, Pa., U.S.A." on the other. It has a tarpaper roof and in Liberia will be the workshop for the local men.

The helicopter in its special house-box will be placed aboard a boat for Liberia at Baltimore January 3.

About January 15, Dr. Voss, Chief Pilot Mark and Chief Mechanic Eugene Hicks will board a plane to fly to Monrovia. They say that three hours after they reach their helicopter they will be able to have it assembled and ready to fly.

EXPECT BETTER WEATHER

In preparation for the trip they completely disassembled and inspected and rebuilt the ship during the last two weeks.

Mark, who calls himself a "displaced Gettysburgian returned home," is a descendant of the McClean family which has been prominent in Adams County history. His great-grandparents were the last of his immediate family to live here, but since his arrival here has become engrossed in McClean history.

Hicks' comment on going to Algeria was based on Thursday afternoon's weather. As he put the parts of the ship in its "box" for shipment he mused: "Hope this Liberia job comes through again each winter. Gettysburg is wonderful for flying—spring, summer and fall—but I can't say much for the winters."

Leave Soon For Liberia Assignment

Members of the staff of Gettysburg Ag-Rotors, local helicopter service, are shown with what will be their headquarters in Monrovia, Liberia, this winter, as they spray thousands of acres of rubber trees for Firestone. The "box-house" was built by Battlefield Earthmovers to serve not only as container for shipment of a helicopter and supplies to Liberia, but as a repair shed when the crew and "chopper" are in West Africa. The helicopter leaves here today for shipment by boat from Baltimore to Liberia. The three men, Chief Mechanic Eugene Hicks, Chief Pilot Charles Mark, and the owner and entomologist, Dr. Carroll Voss, leave January 15. (Gettysburg Times photo)

MISS CAROLINE KENNEDY CUTS OFF NEWS TALK

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Caroline Kennedy—cute, blonde and 3 — is likely to go down in history as the only daughter who ever completely and hilariously disrupted a high-level news conference.

Caroline's daddy is John F. Kennedy, the president-elect. And if the nation is wondering how he will react in an international crisis after he takes office, it can be reported he faced one on the domestic front Thursday night and dealt with it admirably—if with some embarrassment.

40 NEWSMEN THERE

Kennedy and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., were holding a joint news conference to report on their discussion of a multitude of grave problems. About 40 newsmen were grouped around the moonlit patio at the Kennedy ocean-front home.

At that moment Caroline slipped through the ranks of furiously scribbling reporters and into the glare of television newsreel floodlights, wearing pink pajamas and a pale blue bathrobe. She was barefooted and was clutching a pair of her mother's high heel shoes.

"Hi, daddy," she piped. The conference was convulsed in laughter.

NOT FLUSTERED

There was no slightest sign of fluster as the president-elect watched Caroline slip into the high heel shoes and teeter precariously on them.

At that point Kennedy took the youngster by the hand and asked whether she thought it would be a good idea to go on back into the house.

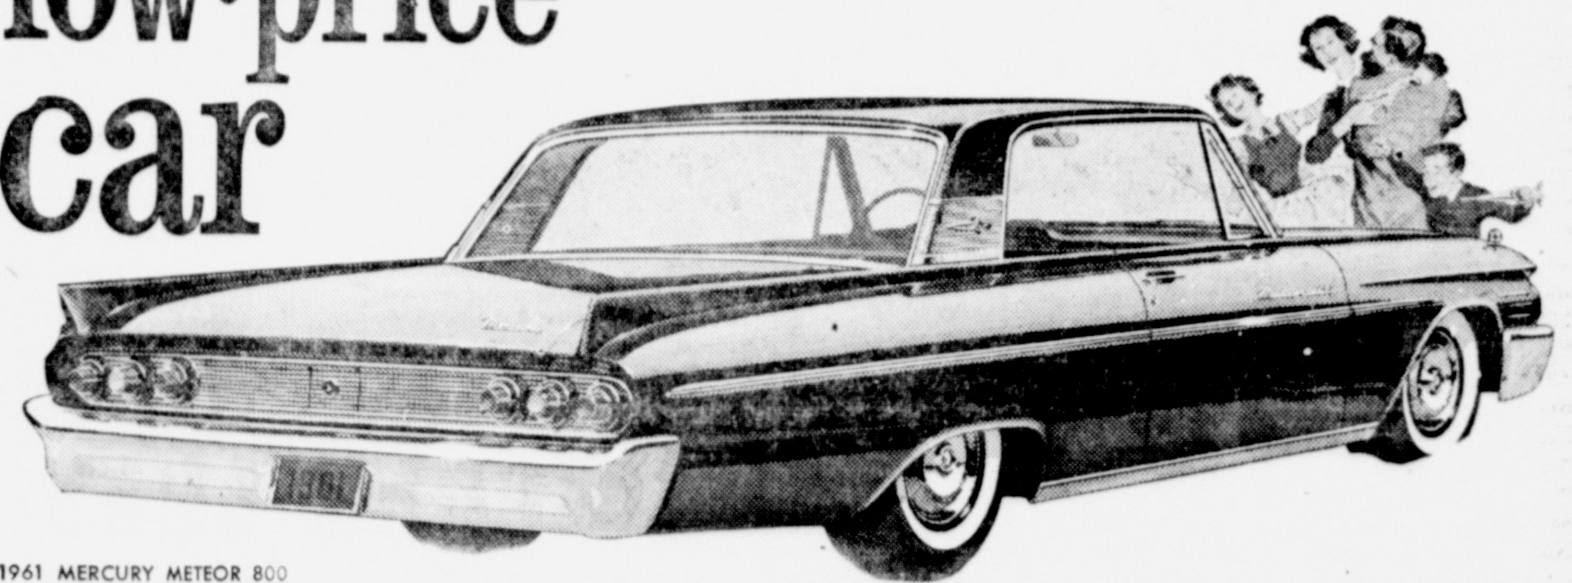

Caroline nodded smiling agreement and shuffled off stage amid uproarious laughter, the cameras scrambling for pictures.

The president-elect got back to the business of the roving ambassador just as though nothing had happened.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
Scouts To Use Former School:
One of Gettysburg's oldest school buildings will soon become headquarters for a Boy Scout troop.
The first parochial school in Gettysburg, long since replaced by the St. Xavier Catholic school on West High street and used for the past several decades as a storage place and garage, will be turned into quarters for the Catholic Boy Scout Troop 78, it was announced Sunday night at a meeting of the troop committee. Remodeling of the building, located at the rear of the Catholic rectory, will begin in the near future.

New Assistant County Agent:
The assignment of Ira N. Dunmire, native of McVeytown, Mifflin county, Pa., as the first full time assistant farm agent in Adams county, effective January 1, was announced today by County Agent M. T. Hartman.
Mr. Dunmire will succeed a C. Hug, part time assistant for Adams and York counties for the past year and a half, who will take up his full-time duties in York county January 1.

Local Couple Weds Sunday In St. James:
In a candlelight service conducted at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in St. James Lutheran church, Miss Lois Jane Klinefelter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Klinefelter, 262 Baltimore street, and Lt. Edwin Lewis Shoop Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Shoop, Gettysburg R. 3, were united in marriage.
The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, before a gathering of friends and relatives. Christmas pines and cut flowers were used in the decorations.

Wave Injured In Crash Here:
Lt. Evelyn G. Phillips, a WAVE stationed in Washington, D. C., suffered brush burns on her neck and injuries to both thumbs when she was thrown from an automobile she was driving on Steinwehr avenue at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.
Her automobile and one operated by Eugene J. Weishaar, Gettysburg R. 3, figured in a collision. Borough police said damage to the two cars was estimated at $150. Officers Clark Staley and Paul Shealer investigated.

Byrnes Tells Of Big Three Agreements In Moscow Meet:
Washington — Secretary of State Byrnes prepared today for his fourth trip abroad in six months after telling Americans why he believes his third contributed to lasting peace.
Also in his radio report last night on the Moscow conference of foreign ministers, Byrnes assured the nation that new international machinery set up for control of Japan will not obstruct "the outstanding and efficient administration" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. It will, he insisted, leave the United States in a top policymaking role.

Veterans To Hold Reunion Tuesday:
A reunion of members and former members of four gasoline supply companies and a headquarters company will be held in the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post Home, Baltimore street, from 7 until 9 o'clock New Year's evening, a local committee announced today.
The reunion will include those who served in the Quartermaster Gasoline Supply Companies 3937, 3938, 3939, and 3940 and the Headquarters Company. Some time ago more than fifty members of these outfits held a reunion here.
The invitation is extended to members and former members in the county and immediate vicinity.

Today's Talk

HOLD THAT TONGUE!
The human tongue, well guarded and respected, can be one of the greatest assets in example and individual power.
When under perfect control the tongue becomes a power for good with few equals.
If more people took note of what their tongues can accomplish or send out, in the way of influence, they would soon learn how unintelligent is the wild and bitter tongue that one exhibits from time to time.
Never is the bitter tongue a welcomed and invited guest!
The human tongue has blessed millions in its time, and it is too valuable a possession to be allowed to be used for the distributing of unkind and disturbing news. The tongue should be concentrated on what is good and what is helpful.
What a world of kindness must have shown in the face of Abraham Lincoln! That tongue of Lincoln's sent words of kindly thought around the world and uttered one of the most moving brief addresses, at Gettysburg, that any tongue has ever spoken.
Hold that tongue of yours. Put it to good purpose. Then God will bless you ever more without end.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "This 31st Day"

NEW YEAR PRAYER
Dear Lord, I do not ask to be Relieved from every care.
Whatever burden falls on me
With courage I would bear.
These for the New Year through
I ask,
And cannot do without:
The strength for every needed task
And faith in times of doubt.
The hours run swiftly into days,
The days into the years.
I would be one who truthful stays
Through smiles and sorrow's tears.

There's nothing time alone can do.
By men its needs are met.
Grant me, dear Lord, this New

To live without regret.

LANGUAGE IS MAIN FACTOR

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The outgoing president of the Modern Language Association says the present state of world affairs imposes new duties upon scholars and language and literature teachers can play an important role in raising American prestige abroad.
Dr. Henri Peyre of Yale told the Association's 75th annual convention Wednesday that foreign nations not only look to the United States for military and economic aid but also for "cultural leadership, bold thinking, renovated education and broad scholarship."
He urged some 6,000 delegates to strive to increase the public's appreciation of literature and good writing.
MUST SHARE BLAME
"We have lately preferred moaning over the general debasement of standards, implicitly proclaiming the failure of education in democracy and resorted to the comfortable device of blaming press magnates and manipulators of the screen, of television and of newspapers," he said.
Teachers must share a large portion of the blame for falling standards, he said, "for most of those who run the newspapers and advertising firms and even Hollywood studios sat at our feet at some time or another."
The convention ends today.

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says he is writing a textbook about the president's role in government.
Truman told a meeting of the Society of Archivists Wednesday that he is writing a schoolbook but added wryly: "It may never come out." He did not elaborate.

The society made Truman an honorary life member and gave him an award for his interest in preserving official documents.

ATLANTIC CITY MURDERER IS TIGHTLIPPED

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A tight-lipped Ralph J. Hudson sat in his jail cell Wednesday awaiting arraignment on a charge of murdering his estranged wife in the restaurant where she worked.

The 41-year-old Camden shipyard worker was to have had a hearing Wednesday before Magistrate Stephen A. Damico on the charge of stabbing Mrs. Myrtle Hudson, 49, in Starn's Restaurant here Tuesday.

But his attorney, J. Robert Peacock of Brigantine, asked for a day's postponement for time to confer with his client. Damico granted the request.

15 WITNESSES

Some 12 to 15 persons who were in the restaurant when Hudson dashed in say they saw him stab his wife in the abdomen as she was seated at a table with other waitresses.

An employee subdued Hudson, who used to work at the restaurant, by wielding a knife over his head until the police arrived.

Hudson told police he wasn't going to say a thing about his past or about the slaying. He has sat quietly in his cell since the police booked him on a charge of murder and held him without bail.

RECENTLY RELEASED

Hudson was released from Atlantic County Jail, Mays Landing, Christmas Eve after he served four months of a six-month sentence for assault and battery.

The charge on which he was sentenced last Aug. 30 was brought by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lighthizer of Brigantine, with whom Mrs. Hudson made her home.

The Lighthizers told police Hudson had phoned them Tuesday morning and threatened injury.

AWAIT RECORDS

The Hudsons had been married nine months. It was his third and her second marriage, the Lighthizers said.

Police said they were awaiting delivery of Hudson's records from Norristown and Pottstown, Pa., where he once lived.

He was born in Coatesville, Pa., but lived in Pottstown for 22 years until he left in 1957.

He frequently visited his mother, stepfather and three children who live there.

Pottstown police said he was arrested seven times on charges of drunken and disorderly conduct between 1947 and 1957.

DORIS DAY TOP AT BOX OFFICE

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—In a year when some critics say movies are dirtier than ever, the screen's queen of freckle-faced wholesomeness—Doris Day—has topped the No. 1 box-office spot.

Miss Day, the girl-next-door if you're lucky enough to live in the right neighborhood, heads the list of the top ten money-making stars selected by the nation's movie exhibitors. She had three big money makers: "Pillow Talk," "Midnight Lace" and "Please, Don't Eat the Daisies."

Runners-up in the annual poll conducted by Motion Picture Herald, a theater owners trade magazine, are in order:

Rock Hudson, Gary Grant, Elizabeth Taylor, Debbie Reynolds, Tony Curtis, Sandra Dee, Frank Sinatra, Jack Lemmon and John Wayne.

For the first time in movie memory, light, sophisticated comedians outnumber the rugged outdoor stars among the males. Only Wayne, who placed 10th, upheld the status of the Western heroes.

And Wayne's two big box-office hits had him playing comedy scenes—even as Davy Crockett in

Uncle Sam May Spend More In 1961 To Boost U.S. Economy

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Uncle Sam is opening his wallet wider and preparing to give the slumping economy an important lift in 1961.

As a matter of fact, increasing federal spending already has been a big factor in limiting the extent of the business decline.

But more important, the Eisenhower administration has set the pattern for continued increases during the new year. If anything, President-elect John F. Kennedy is likely to give the trend an additional boost.

IMPORTANT PROP

Federal spending is the most important single prop under the economy. Federal programs account for better than $1 out of every $10 spent in this country for goods and services of all kinds.

The latest figures show that federal purchases of goods and services increased during July, August and September to an annual rate of $52.7 billion. In October, November and December the rate probably approached $54 billion.

On the basis of the revised federal budget estimates issued in October, some experts here say the purchasing rate will climb to about $55 billion in the first three months of 1961. They predict a further advance to about $55.5 billion in April, May and June.

VERY CONSERVATIVE

These estimates may prove conservative. They do not take into account defense steps ordered since early October, possible new programs to be initiated by the Kennedy administration, and the stimulating effect of Eisenhower's new program to stem the gold drain by spending more at home and less abroad.

Even so, these estimates indicate that the annual rate of federal purchases will climb by nearly $3 billion between the end of last September and next June 30. Significantly, this increase will coincide with what probably will prove the economy's roughest months. By this token, it will be an important anti-recession factor.

USE DEFICIT SPENDING

And should a major recession develop, Kennedy has repeatedly said he would turn to deficit spending as a pump-priming device. In addition, he has indicated he would urge bigger defense outlays than those now programmed by the Eisenhower administration.

As things now stand, an increase in defense contracting late in 1960 portends further spending increases in the last half of 1961. There always is a lag between contracting and spending.

KKK Leader Will Quit Organization

OLDSMAR, Fla. (AP)—Bill Hendrix, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan's Southern-Northern knights for several years, is quitting the klan because "I see no way to stop racial integration and it looks to me like the best thing to do is to accept it."

He told The Associated Press Wednesday night, "I cannot agree to go outside the law to maintain segregation."

The general contractor, twice an unsuccessful candidate for governor on a platform of segregation, said he would not "agree to such things as bombings and burning schools."

"But that's what the klan is going to have to turn to unless it agrees to go along with the laws," he said.

WOMAN KILLED IN COLLISION

CHRISTIANA, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Charlotte M. Warwick, 25, of Cochranton, Chester County, was killed and five other persons injured Wednesday night in a head-on auto collision on Route 41 just outside this Lancaster County community.

Mrs. Warwick was a passenger in the car driven by her husband, Carroll, 28, who was hurt.

Also injured were the Warwick's daughter, Karen, 2, the dead woman's mother, Mrs. Mary E. McCormick, 58; John F. Rodgers, 20, of Coatesville, a McGuire Air Force Base airman who was driving the other car, and his passenger, Joyce Davis, 18, also of Coatesville.

All of the injured were taken to Lancaster General Hospital where the girl was reported in critical condition. The others were reported in serious condition today.

Mrs. Warwick, an expectant mother, was returning home from a visit to her doctor, Dr. George Beachler, in Gap, Lancaster County.

The central roof and tower were destroyed in a Christmas Eve fire. Officials Wednesday also revised the estimate of damage upward to between $250,000 and $300,000. The original estimate was $200,000.

Water damage to books, paintings and art objects in the library was kept to a minimum, the university said.

SAYS GOP WILL ASK FOR EQUAL AIR-TV TIME

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., said today if John F. Kennedy uses White House news conferences for "propaganda" purposes Republicans may ask for equal air time.

Kuchel, the assistant Senate Republican leader, said in an interview that Kennedy's plans to hold evening news conferences on live television indicate the Democrats may be planning "dramatic shows."

"If presidential news conferences are going to be used for propaganda purposes, then we Republicans will have to consider asking for equal time," Kuchel said.

WON'T COVER KENNEDY

Equal time provisions of the law would not cover Kennedy until such a time as he might announce he is a candidate for reelection.

Kuchel said he had in mind speculative reports that Kennedy might call a prime hour television conference to discuss a single subject—possibly some controversial matter before Congress—and limit reporters' questions to that subject.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said at Palm Beach Tuesday that the new administration will ask the networks from time to time to carry evening presidential news conferences live but the networks will be free to carry any or all other presidential meetings with reporters on a live basis.

RISK BOO-BOOS

Aside from possible Republican complaints, Kennedy apparently is willing to risk in live television the kind of presidential boo-boos his predecessors didn't want to take a chance on.

Kennedy's decision means that any possible ill-chosen word or phrase that might have international as well as national repercussions will be on the record instantly.

This will alter the present system under which the president cannot be quoted directly by reporters until a checked transcript of his remarks becomes available.

Average Husband Sees '60 More Confusing Than Ever

By HAL BOYLE
YOURVILLE, U.S.A. (AP)—It was the end of another year.

As usual Wilbur Peeble, America's most average husband, felt pretty blue. Toting up the year he felt he hadn't done much.

"Lemme see," he said to himself. "My forehead got bigger, but my scalp got smaller. Hair today, gone tomorrow."

"I gained 20 pounds so there is more to me. There is the same amount of free air in the world, but I got to breathe faster to get my share. Fat people have to take deep breaths."

ADVISED BOSS

"Twice I told the boss how to improve the firm—so there went the possibility of any raise in pay. "I had 10 fights with my wife, Trellis Mae, and the record shows at the best one draw and nine losses."

"On the other hand, I did stay out of jail."

Wilbur's eye happened at that moment to fall on a newspaper story listing the major news events of 1960.

Farm Show Can't Hold All Entries

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lack of space forced the Farm Show Commission to refuse entry of some dairy cattle and swine in the annual farm show opening next month, the farm show director reported Wednesday.

Director John B. McCool said a total of 773 dairy cattle applied for exhibition but only 651 could be accommodated. Similarly, the entry list of 325 swine had to be trimmed to 263.

The total of 436 sheep entries was slightly over capacity, he said but space was made by putting more sheep in certain pens.

There were no problems of any space for the 381 beef cattle and 92 horses entered, McCool added. The show will be held here Jan. 9-13.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Highways Department has laid off 135 temporary engineering assistants on one week's notice because of reduced winter construction. The department said Wednesday the employees were hired to inspect construction work on highway and bridge projects.

Hanover Quintet Has Been Unpredictable; Carn Scoring Threat

(Another in a series of articles on prospects of South Penn League teams)

HANOVER—Dismal in defeat one day, a battling ball club in contention down to the final frame with a well-regarded opponent three nights later, Hanover High's Nighthawks head into the 1961 South Penn Conference cage campaign as one big question mark.

The unpredictable Birds, erratic in passing and a sorry two-for-16 from the floor in post-intermission combat, bowed before Mechanicsburg 36-33, only to bounce back in their next start with an inspired performance against highly-touted Altoona.

The clash with the Mountain Lions indicated for the first time this season that Hawk coach Fred Kreuter may have the dark horse entry for the SPC championship chase.

While Altoona won it 59-51, Hanover led from the opening tap until the scoreboard clock showed three minutes and 15 seconds remaining to play.

EMPLOY ZONE
It was in this final 3:15 that the Hawks cavorted in the manner that marred their earlier efforts. Their shooting was far off target, their ball-handling left much to be desired and their 1-2-2 zone collapsed as the Lions tied together a string of 11 points in a row.

But the fadeout couldn't take the gloss from the all-around fine performance that enabled Hanover to erect a 38-31 bulge as late as the waning stages of the third quarter.

Kreuter, who began his fifth season as head coach here with a 64-29 record, may have hit upon his best combination in this inter-sectional clash. After considerable juggling, it looks like seniors Dan Carn 6-2, Boog Leister 6-1 and Larry Wentz 5-10 and juniors Jim Grove 6-0 and Lynn Reck 6-0 will be starting for the Flock.

Carn has been particularly impressive, averaging in the neighborhood of 20 points per game despite tight defenses.

Ken Mullin, 5-10 senior, is Kreuter's sixth man with Jack Shafer, 5-10 junior, and Carroll Granger, 6-2 senior, other reliable replacements. Ron Mathias, Ted Becker and Tom Cookerly round out the squad.

The Hawks will open their South Penn schedule by entertaining Gettysburg on January 3.

Consider Two For Lightweight Match

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Paul Sullivan, chairman of the National Boxing Association's world championships committee, says Harold Johnson of Philadelphia and Eric Schoepner of Germany are being considered as opponents for an NBA light-heavyweight title fight.

The NBA is seeking a light-heavyweight champion to succeed Archie Moore.

DEADLINE SET
Sullivan said Thursday, "Both fighters have been given until Jan. 10 to decide if they want to meet each other in such a fight. We'll just have to wait for answers from the two fighters before we decide on anything more definite."

The committee had earlier announced Johnson, Schoepner, and Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach, Fla., had entered a elimination tournament for the championship.

"Pastrano was knocked out when he was upset by Jess Bowdry in a fight at Miami Beach, this week," Sullivan added.

BOWL GAMES WILL ATTRACT OVER 500,000

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
The New Year's weekend college football bowl firing opens tonight in the Tangerine Bowl game at Orlando, Fla., and winds up Monday with the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

An estimated 500,000-plus fans will turn out for a dozen assorted bowl and all-star games.

Heading the list as usual is the oldest of them all, the Rose Bowl clash, this time between Minnesota (8-1) of the Big Ten and Washington (9-1) of the Big Five. Minnesota ended the season as the nation's No. 1 team in the annual AP poll and is a 7-point favorite to clip Washington, rated No. 6.

GAME TONIGHT
A crowd of 103,000 is expected for the Pasadena battle, largest of the bowl turnouts. The game is to be televised (NBC) starting at 5 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Tonight's Tangerine Bowl has the Citadel (7-2-1) against Tennessee Tech (8-2), with 11,000 fans expected.

In addition to the Rose Bowl, Monday's other attractions are the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, the Orange at Miami, and the Cotton at Dallas.

OTHER CONTESTS

Mississippi, No. 2, tackles Rice in the Sugar Bowl; Navy, No. 4, opposes Missouri, No. 5, in the Orange Bowl; and Arkansas, No. 7, meets Duke, No. 10, in the Cotton Bowl.

The Sugar Bowl crowd is expected to hit 81,000, with Mississippi favored by 10 points over Rice (7-3). Missouri (9-1) is 6½ over Navy (9-1) at Miami, where a crowd of 76,000, including President-elect John F. Kennedy, is forecast. The Cotton Bowl turnout is estimated at 65,000, and Arkansas (8-2) is a 7-point choice over Duke (7-3).

That leaves seven other bowls for Saturday, headed by the Gator at Jacksonville, Fla., between Baylor (8-2) and Washington (8-2); and the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco. Florida and Baylor are "pick em" while East rates a 5-point edge over West.

Trust In God Is Possible To All People

By REV. E. P. ELLIOTT
Pastor, Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church

"But I trust in thee, O Lord, I say, 'Thou art my God.' My times are in thy hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors! Let thy face shine on thy servant; save me in thy steadfast love!" Psalm 31:14-16

What of the time? How many days do you have? The days go so fast! It seems as though every voice lately has had a message about time. We have been counting the days until Christmas and now we are facing the coming of New Year's Eve and the beginning of the year 1961.

It is an old custom to observe the New Year's Day by making resolutions to observe better conduct. In taking stock of what we have done and what we have left undone, there are often located real faults in our character. Some of us feel that a New Year's resolution is a fearful thing. It holds a tyranny over life and soul. We know that there is danger of breaking good resolutions, so we do not make any. Yet the change of the year is a convenient mark by which to measure spiritual and moral growth.

"TRUST IN GOD"
It is possible and helpful to strive for a new spiritual emphasis during the months which lie ahead. The Psalmist gives us good direction when he says, "I trust in thee." Steady trust in God is possible to all people. It is not difficult because our human natures are designed to trust God. Trust in God is a positive action. When we make a purposeful decision to trust in God, no matter what the circumstances may be, we gain strength to meet life.

Positive trust in God is a creative relationship in life. It is a willingness to accept and use His power. When this association grows and strengthens, all the personal relationships of life are affected. Some relationships are made stronger while others are outgrown. This process is closely akin to growing from childhood to maturity. New meanings and worth are found in life. A man becomes a better kind of person.

"TESTED BY LIFE"
"My times are in thy hands," says the Psalmist. These words become a code of living when they truly express the inward feeling of the soul. Such trust is often the result of a well-tested and tried Christian faith. This insight is also a source of more strength. Each of us daily is tested by life, and only as we have inner moral resources do we meet face to face the challenge.

Fear can be the most devastating experience known. When fear is faced with the help of God and in the calm, sure knowledge that "we are never alone" it loses its mysterious power to destroy us. When we place our lives in the hands of God for his use and direction, we are indeed not alone. "Deliver me from the hand of my enemies." These words are not theatrical talk. The enemies which face us are many and powerful. Some enemies are the faults within our own characters. Many of us secretly know that we are our own worst enemy. More often the enemies are outside in the form of the overwhelming odds in life. The battle is well begun and half won when we know there are enemies and ask God's help in being delivered from them. The assurance of His grace gives us steady courage.

PRAY FOR BLESSINGS

"Let thy face shine on thy servant." In these words the Psalmist asks God's blessing. Let the new year be one in which we actively expect God to bless us. Is this a strange thought? Have we lived so far from Him that His blessing seems unreal? Have we cherished every bitter note until we can no longer hear the voices of angels singing? Let us pray for the blessing and then live in the assurance it will come.

Let us wish others well in the name of God. How hard this is to do! How much it conflicts with our secret jealousy and hate. No one likes to admit that his will is against God's purpose. Christian prayer brings us to the throne of mercy in order that we might learn to share with other human beings the mercy and grace of God. His goodness must become our goodness.

KNOW GOD'S GOODNESS

Open our eyes that we may see! Even as we often walk on the accustomed pathways of life without seeing their beauty, so we live without watching for the signs of God's favor. It is so easy to look for the fault and the sin. Yet, the wisest philosophers and teachers have been those who could open our minds to see the beauty and goodness which lay all around us. The deepest religious teachers have been able to open our eyes to know the goodness of God.

Not only must we see God's goodness, but we must learn to live it. As we express in our lives day by day any thought or feeling, it becomes part of us. As we live for the goodness of God, it becomes a transforming power within us. As in learning to sing, we need to practice in order to be good.

The Psalmist adds, "Save me in thy steadfast love." We do not need to wonder whether troubles will come. They will. They are the common experience of living. The need for salvation is as recurring a need as hunger or thirst. The steadfast love of God is not shut off. Troubles met in the confidence of God's mercy will be overcome and conquered. The words of the twenty-third Psalm tell of the confidence of one who had made a practice of seeking God's salvation. "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me."

In the midst of the years, in the changing times, let us look to God with steadiness and say with the Psalmist, "My times are in thy hands."

Yesterday is gone. We tear its page from our calendar, for we live in the present.

But often we look back with nostalgia to the many yesterdays which make up the past. In a different mood we plan for the uncertain days ahead, sometimes filling them with happy expectations, sometimes with anxious forebodings.

Where is God in this time pattern of our lives?

Is He in the past alone, incarnate two thousand years ago in the great Teacher of Nazareth? Or does He walk with us through the present, our Companion each day? Does He remove all fear from the future with His promise, the promise of the living Christ, "And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world?"

Come to Church and learn to know this Christ who is "the same yesterday, today, and forever."

RELEASE LIST OF SALES TAX DEDUCTIONS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service has released a table which Pennsylvania taxpayers may use as a guide in figuring how much sales tax payments may be deducted from their income tax returns.

"Taxpayers who itemize their deductions instead of taking the standard deduction on forms 1040 and 1040W may find the table helpful in estimating the amount of sales tax on their returns," Edgar A. McGinnes, IRS district director, said Thursday.

McGinnes said taxpayers who use the figure listed in the table usually will not be questioned. Taxpayers who list bigger deductions may have to defend their claims, he added.

Taxpayers who do not itemize their deductions on the tax forms take the standard deductions for these items, including sales tax, which is 10 per cent of their adjusted gross incomes.

BASED ON 4 PER CENT

The table, based on the state's 4 per cent sales tax, follows:

Adjusted Gross Income Sales Tax Payments
Under $1,000	$22

$6,000 under $6,500	112
$6,500 under $7,000	121
$7,000 under $7,500	130

DELAWARE TO INTEGRATE IN NEXT DECADE

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The Delaware Board of Education has formulated plans to integrate all the state's school districts by September 1970.

The board, in a plan filed Thursday with the U.S. District Court here, also proposed to admit Negro pupils next September to all-white schools, providing the school facilities and pupils' abilities are suitable.

Negro pupils desiring to transfer and enroll in white schools in their locality next September will register on special dates to be selected.

The Third Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia last July threw out as discriminatory and unconstitutional the board's grade-a-year plan. It had originally been approved by the District Court here. It would have begun next fall and completed desegregation through 12 grades in 1972.

The present plan calls for:

1. Eliminating all distinctions between Negro and white school districts.
2. Dividing Delaware into school districts having one administrative head and one school board each. This would require legislative action.
3. Having local school boards in each district establish attendance areas without regard to race.

All of the New Castle county schools now are integrated. Nearly half the state's school children live in this county, which includes Wilmington.

The state's other two counties, Kent and Sussex, are predominantly rural and still largely segregated. There are 77,000 public school pupils in Delaware.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dr. Frederick Fuller Russell, 90, who developed the first successful typhoid vaccine during the Spanish-American War, died Thursday.

NEW YORK (AP)—John Vincent Lawless Hogan, 71, inventor of single dial radio tuning and co-founder of radio station WQXR in New York, died Thursday.

SPARKILL, N.Y. (AP)—George W. Gray, 75, science writer and former staff member of the Rockefeller Foundation, died Thursday of heart attack.

Jobless Claims Rise During Week

HARRISBURG (AP) — Unemployment compensation claims rose again during the week ended Dec. 23.

The State Bureau of Employment Security reported Thursday that continued claims rose to 267,789 and new claims to 59,095. A week ago, continued claims were 248,271 and a year ago, 166,489; new claims were 52,964 a week ago and 41,367 a year ago.

In both cases, the bureau said claims are above the recession year of 1958.

YVONNE LIME TO RETURN TO HUSBAND, HOME

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—When pretty blonde Yvonne Lime turned up this fall as a secretary in the office of Buddy in "Bringing Up Buddy," a woman fan sat right down and wrote a letter to the actress.

"Why," she demanded, "did you leave your nice husband and lovely baby to go to work in an office?"

Well, the lady will be happy to know that on Friday, Jan. 13, Yvonne will return to her nice husband and lovely baby. "Happy," a featherweight situation comedy which helped fill in the Perry Como hour during the hot summer months, will be returning to the NBC air waves. Thus, Yvonne, Ronnie Burns and the baby (played alternately by twins David and Steven Born) will be back together again.

ALL OVER NOW

In what Hollywood calls "real life," Yvonne and Ronnie, who play the young couple, are respectively spinster and bachelor. When "Happy" failed to survive into the fall network schedules, Yvonne went to work on "Bringing Up Buddy," and there was some idea of building up a romance between her and Buddy at some point or other in that series. That's all over now.

Meanwhile, according to Yvonne and Ronnie who are in New York for a few days to arouse some interest in the show, all sorts of remodeling work is being done on the series to improve the show. It was not, quite frankly, received with wide critical acclaim even as a summer replacement.

Many Industrial Leaders Optimistic On '61 Business

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — The leaders of the nation's industry are optimistic about business conditions in 1961. They are optimistic despite the admittedly sharper bite of foreign competition, and a widespread attitude of watchful waiting to see what the new administration will do.

An even 50 per cent of the several hundred top executives polled while recently attending the 65th Congress of American Industry in New York City, expected their own company profits to improve during 1961 over current levels. Only 11 per cent expected earnings to drop below 1960.

The poll was conducted by the National Association of Manufacturers, sponsors of the annual Congress, among the 1,600 or more delegates gathered from all over the country.

Hedge Predictions

Many of those responding to the NAM poll hedged their predictions by explaining they felt the second half of the year should more than offset any continued drag during the first half. Many others predicted lower earnings for their own industries as a whole than they expected for their own companies.

Actual figures were as follows: Expect improved outlook for own company during 1961—50 per cent; same as 1960—39 per cent; lower than 1960—11 per cent. The same respondents expect improved outlook for own industry—34 per cent; same as 1960—42 per cent; lower than 1960—24 per cent.

Will Affect Profit

Nearly half of those replying—42 per cent—felt the new administration would have an adverse effect on their profit picture; 52 per cent expected no change. Six per cent felt the new administration would improve their earnings. In regard to foreign competition, two-thirds (66 per cent) reported increasing pressure from business abroad on their respective industries. Some 37 per cent expected foreign competition to be serious enough to require them to reduce their payrolls during the year.

When queried as to what policies they felt most important in spurring economic growth, the overwhelming majority checked economy in government, reform of the income tax rate, and curbs on the monopoly power of unions.

Blanc Resigns As District Attorney

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia has a new district attorney today—and a new judge.

Victor H. Blanc resigned Wednesday as D. A. to take a seat on the Common Pleas Court bench.

Paul M. Chalfin, his first assistant, automatically becomes the city's prosecutor until the board of judges meets and selects a successor. The next meeting of the judges is scheduled for Feb. 24.

MOTHER EARTH SLOWING DOWN VERY SLOWLY

NEW YORK (AP) — Mother earth is slimming down that slight bulge around her waistline — but not so you'd notice.

It's going to take her some 100 million years.

And the old girl is — almost imperceptibly — slowing up. But her body is a lot stronger than the doctors thought it was before.

These are some of the indications from satellite studies reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science meeting by Dr. Gordon J. F. MacDonald of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

First, the satellite studies showed that earth's shape was more full around the middle than had been supposed.

Scientists were able to determine the earth's shape from the unusual action of man-made satellites circling the earth. One Vanguard satellite's orbit was found to vary by as much as a half a mile a day, in obedience to the earth's gravity.

IS REDUCING SPEED

The earth has had its midriff bulge for the past 100 million years, Dr. MacDonald said.

But slowly the earth is reducing the speed with which it turns on its axis—and this slowing is adding 1-1000th of a second to each day every year.

In 100 million years the total of these fractions of a second will come to a 15-minute longer day.

This reduced spin will also influence the earth's shape and, probably, slowly the earth's crust will adjust to the slower speed and the bulge will gradually disappear.

It isn't known whether the earth's crust can accommodate the slowly lessening bulge without cracking, but Dr. MacDonald says it will probably creep back into shape.

Family Food Facts

THOMAS E. PIPER
Area Marketing Agent

New Year's Day traditions will influence retail food promotions and consumer's shopping lists weekend, observes Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent. Since pork is the traditional meat for this holiday's fare, look for retail features on a variety of pork items at reasonable prices.

Ham prices will range widely depending on weight, method of cutting and the amount of promotional emphasis. There are many styles and methods of processing hams. Tenderized hams have been partially heated — but need further cooking — are ready for the table but further cooking may bring out maximum flavor. Be sure to read the label and follow the packer's instructions carefully.

BEST BUY IN HAM

To get the best buy in ham, reduce the price per pound to a cost per serving basis. The number of servings per pound varies with the type of ham selected, so the price per pound may seem high when comparing costs. For example, a canned ham will yield 4 servings per pound while a bone in butt half will yield only 2½ servings per pound. If canned ham is selling for 85 cents a pound, then a butt half would be a comparable value at 53 cents a pound.

Broiler-fryers and light weight stewing hens are expected to share the good value position at the meat counter.

Improved quality and flavor is characteristic of the grapefruit arriving from Florida. Prices on oranges and grapefruit are unchanged from levels of last week; orange prices are expected to advance soon if processor prices advance as indicated. Small size oranges and tangerines are the better buy now. Navel oranges from California are larger in size and have good eating qualities.

PRICE OF FRUIT

Large size Stayman apples, Emperor grapes and cranberries are in good supply and at reasonable prices. Banana prices are below those prevailing in recent weeks.

Most of our fresh vegetable supplies at this season of the year come from Florida, Texas, Arizona and California. Shipping charges are always included in

The York Springs Boy Scouts will conduct a paper drive Saturday morning. Residents are asked to put paper in bundles on the sidewalk or porch. A truck will go through Latimore and Bermudian Twp. Bundles of paper may be left at Coulson's Garage.

MARINES ARE TAKING OVER BUDDY'S HOME

CHICAGO (AP) — Marines from Okinawa have started landing at the John G. Ransford home. A situation appears definitely out of hand.

The first contingent of five Marines arrived Wednesday at the John G. Ransford home. More are on the way. Before the old year dies, the five-bedroom Ransford home may be housing more than a dozen Marines.

Donald (Butch) Ransford, 22, a Marine corporal, takes full responsibility for the invasion. He landed from Okinawa on Dec. 16 after 16 months service for a leave. He telephoned his mother and told her he had invited 32 of his buddies to her house "after Christmas." Fifteen, he added hesitantly, had accepted the bid.

SOME HITCH-HIKING

Donald's brother, Jerry, 20, reporting five of Donald's buddies had arrived Wednesday, added: "We got a telephone call from others saying a car with seven when or from where. And then there are supposed to be more hitch-hiking from Cincinnati."

Mrs. Ransford, who at first didn't believe Donald's story, found it was true when he arrived home Dec. 19. The family

Man Is Slain In Drinking Quarrel

HARRISBURG (AP) — George Glenny, about 40, was shot to death Monday night as the climax of what police described as a drinking quarrel at a suburban home.

Glenny was found dead outside the home of William Donbach, 43, in Edgemont. Donbach was taken into custody by police.

Detective Sgt. Robert Smith of the state police barracks here said the two men had been drinking before the quarrel developed. Glenny was shot with a rifle once in the body, walked out the door and down the front steps and dropped over dead, Smith said. Smith said he did not know the details of the argument.

No charges were filed immediately.

started preparing, frantically.

A 23-pound turkey was cooked Wednesday. A 60-cup percolator, borrowed from a fraternal group, was ready for constant perking. The refrigerator was stacked with food. A milk company offered emergency service.

NEIGHBORS ARE HELPING

Mattresses, pillows and bed clothing, also borrowed, were stacked upstairs ready for the emergency.

Neighbors heard about Butch's invitation and many brought in food. The Marines already have 10 invitations to dinner from friends and neighbors. The first big event was dinner at the Ransford home Wednesday night for the first arrivals, all from the Chicago area.

Mrs. Ransford appeared going along with the gag but she doesn't know how long the boys are going to stay.

"Butch doesn't know. He thinks most of them will want to be home for New Year's Eve. I suppose they must all have homes."

"Butch is a nice boy. He just doesn't have all his senses."

JUDSON M. ELLIS

Judson M. Ellis, director of sales promotion of the G. C. Murphy Co., the nation's third largest variety store chain with headquarters in McKeesport, will retire from active duty on Saturday.

He started his retail career in his native city of Richmond, Va. at an early age. After more than 20 years, all of which was spent in various phases of sales promotion and advertising, he joined the Murphy organization in June of 1931 to head up their sales promotion department. During his Murphy career he has seen the company grow from 171 stores with an annual sales volume of $18,000,000 to the nation's third largest chain with 437 stores in 22 states and the District of Columbia and a 1959 sales volume in excess of $238,000,000.

SAYS ZANZIBAR IS LAUNCHING FOR RED DRIVE

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The "Rand Daily Mail" claimed today that the storied island of Zanzibar, off the East African coast, had become a launching pad for a Communist assault on the African continent — backed jointly by Moscow, Peking and Prague, with an assist from President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

A dispatch from Zanzibar said "By an ironic twist of history Zanzibar—the base from which the great missionary drive was launched to take Christianity into East and Central Africa — has been chosen by communism as a stepping stone for its assault on the same regions."

The dispatch said, "This small British protectorate has become the target of a skillful and persistent propaganda campaign from Peking, Moscow and Prague substantially aided by Cairo."

The paper added pro-Communist speeches can be heard in the streets, and although it denies any Communist affiliations, the Zanzibar Nationalist party may be communism's most effective ally in the region.

Junior Jon Feldman of Newark, N. J., averaged 21 points a game for George Washington University's basketball team last season.

SURVIVOR OF SPLIT TANKER CITES DANGER

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A survivor of the storm-broken tanker Pine Ridge told a Coast Guard board Thursday that after looking the ship over he would have gone back to the Union Hall had he not liked the company.

Albert G. Buffington Jr. of New York said the ship looked "like what you would call a rust pot."

He said "a lot of fellows would have gone back to the Union Hall, but I liked the company. I knew it was a good company and thought it would be a good ship."

SUIT FILED
A suit for $250,000 was filed in Federal Court in Newport News on behalf of one of the seven men who died. It was filed by the estate of Joseph D. Courson of Nashville, Ga., who was quartermaster on the bridge when the tanker broke.

One of the ship's quartermasters testified that holes in her cargo tank bulkheads forced a delay in ballasting the tanker for heavy weather when it ran into the storm off Cape Hatteras, N.C., on Dec. 21.

FIRST OFFICER CALLED
Dominick Dowieki of New York said the first officer called the captain of the bridge when the ship started to pound around 4:30 a.m. Capt. Carl Snyder, clad in his bathrobe, came to the bridge and told the mate they could not take on more ballast until seawater already in some of the ship's tanks flowed into the other tanks and found a level.

Later, more ballast was added, but minutes later the tanker broke in two. The bow section sank, taking the lives of the master, the three mates and three other men.

Woman Killed In Apartment Blaze

DELAWARE TOWNSHIP, N.J. (AP)—Fire swept a section of the Walworth Apartments today killing one woman and leaving 14 families homeless.

The pre-dawn blaze started in a second-floor apartment of a woman identified by neighbors as Mrs. C. Austin Lynn, killing her. She was alone.

The fire burned through eight other apartments in the rambling two-story, brick apartment development. Smoke and water heavily damaged six other homes in the section of about 50 apartments.

Investigators said they were seeking the cause. Several firemen required treatment for smoke inhalation.

STATE WILL GREET 1961 IN TRADITION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pennsylvanians usher in a New Year at midnight Saturday, with resolutions and hopes of better things to come.

In a tradition dating back to colonial days, thousands will sing psalms and pray at special church services.

Countless others will jam night clubs to greet the new year with noise makers and choruses of "Auld Lang Syne."

190TH SERVICE
St. George's Methodist Church, not far from Philadelphia's Independence Hall, will hold its 190th annual watchnight service. In 1770, the first New Year's Eve service in America in America was held in historic St. George's.

The Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches estimates 750,000 will attend watchnight services in Philadelphia, Chester, Montgomery, Delaware and Bucks Counties.

New Jersey will get a great deal of business from Pennsylvanians since state laws forbid sale of liquor and beer after midnight Saturday until Monday in night clubs and bars.

SOME CHARGES DOWN
Many communities in New Jersey, where liquor may be sold until 3 a.m., are not far from the Philadelphia area, where a fifth of Pennsylvania's residents reside.

In Philadelphia a check of leading clubs and hotels showed that minimum charges will range from $2.50 to $12.50 a person.

Clubs in Pittsburgh report prices down from last year with most clubs and hotels fixing a $5 charge per person.

Most persons will have a long weekend since business establishments and offices generally will be closed both Sunday and Monday in observance of the holiday.

But in Harrisburg the Capitol offices will be closed today instead of Monday. They will open Monday to prepare for the Legislature which convenes its 1961 session Tuesday.

Meanwhile, safety officials have urged motorists to drive with extreme care since many roads are covered with ice and snow. State and local police forces are putting on extra traffic details in efforts to avoid accidents.

KILLED BY HIT-AND-RUN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A hit-and-run auto struck and killed William T. Anderson, 60, Thursday night as he was walking toward his stalled car with a can of gasoline, police reported. He was an engineer for the Pennsylvania Railroad.
